CLARE BOOTHE LUCE
POLICY INSTITUTE

Preparing and Promoting Conservative Women Leaders

DEAR FRIENDS,

You know how important it is for courageous women to step up and speak out on behalf of your values. Young women need to learn not just conservative philosophy but also the importance of grace, honesty, values, personal and professional integrity, and the extraordinary uniqueness of America.

As the upcoming generation matures and realizes that liberal policies - from abortion to out-of-control government - are hurting women, they are seeking out truth and mentorship. They need an alternative place to turn, rather than their radical leftwing campus "Women's Centers."

This is why I founded the Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute more than 24 years ago. I sought to create an organization unlike any in the Conservative Movement with its focus to train, support, and build strong conservative women. Today, our Institute educates and inspires tomorrow's leaders.

In a world where radical feminists and other leftists are promoted at every turn, CBLPI's 2017 "Great American Conservative Women" calendar provides real role models for our young women. I am so grateful to our thousands of supporters who have a heart for young women and help us promote articulate, strong, and gracious conservative ladies in our calendars. Each of these ladies speaks for CBLPI at our events and on college campuses. If you are interested in hosting a campus speaker, or if you know of a student who may be interested, please contact us at (888) 891-4288. We are eager to help!

Sincerely,

President,
Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute

BAY BUCHANAN

JANUARY

At age thirty-two, Bay Buchanan was the youngest Treasurer of the United States, a position to which she was appointed by President Ronald Reagan. She was the National Treasurer for Reagan's 1980 and 1984 presidential campaigns. In addition, she ran all of her brother Pat Buchanan's presidential campaigns and in 2012 was a Senior Advisor to Mitt Romney. Bay is the author of two books, The Extreme Makeover of Hillary (Rodham) Clinton and Bay and Her Boys: Unexpected Lessons I Learned as a (Single) Mom. She is a staunch pro-life advocate, a wife, and mother of three grown sons. She is the recipient of CBLPI's 2002 Conservative Leadership Award and 2007 Woman of the Year Award. Bay has spoken for CBLPI at numerous lunches, seminars, conferences, and college lectures, and is one of our most popular campus speakers.

MARSHA BLACKBURN

FEBRUARY

Congressman Marsha Blackburn is a trailblazer and always has been. From breaking records selling books in college to getting elected to Congress, she has often earned the privilege of being “the first woman to....” As a mother, grandmother, small business owner, and elected official, she has dedicated her life to public service and paving the way for others. She knows the value in overcoming adversity and persevering when times get tough because she’s been fighting her whole life. She’ll keep on fighting so that other women can also shatter glass ceilings. In 2016, CBLPI celebrated Congressman Blackburn as our Woman of the Year.

STACEY DASH

MARCH

Stacey Dash joined FOX News Channel in 2014 and currently serves as a contributor, offering cultural analysis and commentary across various daytime and prime-time programs. Best known for her role in the hit movie Clueless, she created waves in her Hollywood social network by supporting a conservative in the 2012 presidential election. Stacey has continued to utilize her unique positioning as a well-known actress to voice her opinions and encourage discussion on topics ranging from pop culture to national news and politics across all media platforms. Most recently, she ignited a heated debate with her claims that we should do away with things like Black History Month and the BET channel because they are perpetuating segregation. Stacey has spoken for CBLPI at events including our Western Women's Summit and Afternoon with an Author.

AMANDA COLLINS

OCTOBER

Amanda Collins is the founding director of T.E.A.R.S. Speak (Teaching/Empowering Assault & Rape Survivors), where she encourages survivors and advocates for victims' rights and women's rights to self-defense. Amanda became a Second Amendment activist after surviving a brutal attack as a college student, only feet away from the campus police office. She has worked tirelessly to ensure women across the United States are given the ability to choose how to protect themselves, particularly on college campuses. This activism has lead Amanda to also advocate for victims' rights and to give hope for living a full life after surviving trauma. Amanda has appeared on NRA's Cam and Friends, Glenn Beck, Fox and Friends, has been featured in Katie Palvich's Safe Haven, Tamra Hall's Guns on Campus and many others sharing her story and experience to raise education and hopefully enact legislative change. Amanda is a loving wife and a mother of three beautiful young daughters, Annabelle, Penelope, and Evangeline.

CLARE BOOTHE LUCE

DECEMBER

U.S. Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce (1903-1987) was one of the most acclaimed and accomplished women of the 20th century: editor of Vanity Fair; a playwright; a European and Asian war journalist; a two-term Connecticut Congresswoman; and Ambassador to Italy – the first American woman ambassador to a major nation – whose proposed treaty of Trieste was successfully negotiated between Yugoslavia and Italy. Her extraordinary beauty was matched by a brilliant mind and wit, epitomized by her famous quote, “No good deed goes unpunished.” She knew the heights of joy, and the depths of despair in the tragic death of her college-age daughter. A wife, mother, and woman of ever-deepening faith, she is a most appropriate namesake for an Institute that prepares and promotes young women leaders.
