CLARE BOOTHE LUCE
POLICY INSTITUTE

Preparing and Promoting Conservative Women Leaders

DEAR FRIENDS,

Twenty-five years ago, after having the honor of serving in the administration of President Ronald Reagan for eight years and then four years for President George H.W. Bush, I founded the Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute. Our mission was simple: to inspire, mentor, and equip young women to become our future conservative leaders by drawing upon the insights, expertise, and experiences of great role models like the women leaders in this calendar. This is something the Left had been doing since the 1960's with their liberal leaders like Hillary Clinton and Nancy Pelosi. Thanks to thousands of patriotic Americans who have supported CBLPI, we have reached hundreds of thousands of young women with our groundbreaking and totally unique programs.

Millions of young women are struggling against leftism, feminism, and liberalism at their schools and colleges, in the media, and in the popular culture. They are hungry for the opportunity to hear our inspiring speakers, attend our lunches, seminars, and summits, and receive the specific unique training from successful conservative women that only the Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute provides. In addition to conservative policy and solutions, we also stress values, the beauty of marriage and family, and strong and gracious leadership characteristics.

In celebration of our 25th Anniversary, the CBLPI 2018 Calendar celebrates some of the most accomplished women leaders in our previous calendars who, like the Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute, have dedicated their lives to promoting conservative ideas.

We hope you enjoy this special edition of the Great American Conservative Women Calendar, and that you will be with us for the next 25 years and beyond.

Sincerely,

BAY BUCHANAN

Bay Buchanan served as President Reagan's United States Treasurer—the youngest person to ever hold this position. She ran her brother Pat Buchanan's 1992 and 1996 presidential campaigns and served as national treasurer of President Reagan's 1980 presidential campaign. A wife, mother, and author, Bay was awarded CBLPI's Woman of the Year Award in 2007. At CBLPI speeches before college audiences for 20 years, Bay tells our young women, “any one of you can become a leader” – and then tells them how.

CLARE BOOTHE LUCE

Clare Boothe Luce, who lived from 1903 to 1987, is the namesake of the Clare Boothe Luce Policy Institute because she is such a tremendous role model for today's future leaders. She had an extraordinarily successful career as a WWII journalist, playwright, editor and author, U.S. Congresswoman, and U.S. Ambassador to Italy. She was also a loving wife and mother and a woman of great faith. We are honored to have her granddaughter Clare Luce, serve on the CBLPI Board of Directors.

CHRISTINA HOFF SOMMERS

Christina Hoff Sommers came to Washington after working as a professor of philosophy at Clark University where she began her book, Who Stole Feminism? Her experience as a mother of two sons became part of her next book, The War Against Boys. In addition to writing books and articles she frequently appears in media, lectures, and debates. A popular CBLPI campus speaker, Leftists often create “safe spaces” and “trigger warnings” for delicate leftwing students when she lectures on campuses.

Below are some of the speakers who have recently spoken on college campuses, at our regional summits, and at our mentoring luncheons. They are popular among our students and have been great role models for many young conservative women. Read below to find out more on some of the issues they speak on.

This sketch of our Headquarters includes the new Center for Conservative Women. The expansion provides a much needed place for more young women to receive activism training, mentoring, and education on key policy issues. Our work to develop and inspire the next generation of women in leadership has never been more important. Women hold pivotal national leadership roles and are vital to shaping conservative public policy for America.
